Announcement

I am delighted to introduce Dr Paul C. Edwards as the new Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology Section Editor of this Journal. Paul is no stranger to TripleO, as he has served as Editor of the Clinicopathologic Conference portion of the journal since 2005. He is also a member of the Editorial Board of the Journal of Dental Education (ADEA), as well as an ad hoc reviewer for numerous journals.

Dr Edwards received his BSc in Biochemistry from Carleton University. He obtained his DDS and MSc from the University of Toronto. After graduating from dental school, he practiced dentistry in Ontario for approximately 10 years. However, he subsequently followed his true calling in life and completed his specialty training in Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology at Long Island Jewish Medical Center under the mentorship of Dr John Fantasia. Dr Edwards then joined the faculty at Creighton University School of Dentistry in 2004, where he served as Laboratory Director of their biopsy service. In 2007, he was recruited to the University of Michigan School of Dentistry as an Associate Professor. He is actively involved in the education of undergraduate dental students and currently serves as the Director of their Advanced Education Program in Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology as well as the Laboratory Director of their active biopsy service.

Dr Edwards has authored over 60 peer-reviewed publications, abstracts, and book chapters. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Canada and the American Academy of Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology. In addition, he is a Diplomate of the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology. He has received numerous awards for academic and research excellence, including the Robert J. Gorlin Research Award from the American Academy of Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology.

I have had the distinct pleasure of interacting with Paul during my time as the Oral Pathology Section Editor and believe he possesses all of the skills required to be an outstanding Section Editor. I cannot think of a better individual to take the reins of our Academy’s official publication and look forward to our continued interaction in this new capacity.
