Announcement

We are pleased to announce that Christos Angelopoulos has been appointed Associate Editor for the Oral Radiology section of Oral Surgery, Oral Medicine, Oral Pathology, Oral Radiology, and Endodontology. Dr Angelopoulos is a graduate of the Aristotle University, School of Dentistry, Thessaloniki, Greece. His post-doctoral training includes a 2-year internship in Oral Surgery (Aristotle University) and a 1-year GPR program (Truman Medical Center, Kansas City). In addition, he has completed a 3-year Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology residency program at University of Missouri-Kansas City, School of Dentistry and was awarded the MS degree in Oral Biology.

Dr Angelopoulos is a diplomate of the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology and a fellow of the International College of Oral Implantologists. He has held University appointments at University of Missouri-Kansas City, School of Dentistry (assistant professor 08/02-02/07) and at Columbia University, College of Dental Medicine (associate professor and director of Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology 03/07-12/10). Currently, he holds an Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology consultant’s appointment at James J. Peters VA Medical Center (Bronx NY).

Dr Angelopoulos has served as the Executive Director of the American Academy of Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology (AAOMR) since 10/2009 and has served as an officer of the AAOMR for several years.

He has published over 30 scientific papers and has spoken in several conventions and CE courses, nationally as well as internationally, on a variety of radiology topics. His main research interests include diagnostic ultrasound, cone beam computed tomography, implant imaging, etc.

Dr Angelopoulos is licensed in the states of New York and Missouri and maintains a maxillofacial radiologic consultation practice, Maxillofacial Radiology Consultants (www.mfr-co.com) in Manhattan, NY.

William C. Scarfe
Section Editor, Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology